Yes, we're just mad for anything that's Mtns Made

The unique products of our region's creative industries are being branded in big, bold letters - We Are MTNS MADE. The brand was launched at the soon-to-open Carrington micro-brewery. Pictured are Leura artists Caitlin Shearer, Georgia Blackie and Eloise Crossman, who feature in the MTNS MADE promotional publication. Photo: Shane Desiatnik. See story page 8.
